

National Multilingual Learners Advocacy Month 2026

growing multilingual communities

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
			Collect the languages of your classroom or school and create a fun display! 1	Learn about Black American linguistic practice and justice from the Black Language Syllabus . 2	Check out this list of recommended books about students using their voices! 3	4
5	Print out these coloring pages that show our pride in multilingualism - for kids and adults alike! 6	Ask your public library about their multilingual story times, book collections, and digital resources. Is our library card application available in multiple languages? 7	Write a letter to community partners and ask about their language assets! Template linked here! 8	Learn about Lau v. Nichols , the landmark SCOTUS that enumerated education rights for English learners. 9	Check out this list of recommended books about celebrating language! 10	11
12	Together with your students, co-construct a letter to your school or district leadership about your pride in multilingualism. 13	Look up your town's local policies on language access for housing and social services. 14	Ask your school what pathways exist for our multilingual learners to access AP, Honors, Gifted/Enrichment programming. 15	Explore the resources of the Language Justice Syllabus and consider how to apply them to your spaces. 16	Check out this list of recommended books about the immigrant & newcomer experience! 17	18
19	Check out ELL2.0's Case Law reference page so that we are all equipped to advocate for our students & families! 20	Ask your park district about their multilingual programming for the summer! 21	Does your school have a group for bilingual parents? Get to know the leadership or learn how to start one! 22	Select a phrase for your students to learn in multiple different languages! 23	Check out this list of recommended books for multilingual educators! 24	25
26	Celebrate multilingualism through music with an international pop playlist! 27	Review these Advocacy Scripts so that you can advocate for students all year long! 28	Brainstorm with your teammates about small ways you can keep embracing multilingualism all year! 29	CELEBRATE your wins. Share what you and your team are doing for multilingual students on social media and with your school board! 30		